INVESTITURE CEREMONY OF GENDER CHAMPION'S CLUB AT GGSCW-26

The Investiture Ceremony for members of Gender Champions Club was organized on September 18, 2017 at Guru Gobind Singh College for Women. The club was conceptualized in the College under the guidelines of MHRD and UGC to create gender awareness among students in institutions. Gender Champions were given badges with a pledge to promote the cause of gender equality and sensitization in the campus and community. A special lecture was organized to educate the students on "Reproductive Health of Young Girls". Dr Madhu Gupta, Additional Professor of Community Medicine, School of Public Health PGIMER, Chandigarh enlightened the students on key areas of reproductive health along with women's "reproductive rights". She emphasized on making informed choices in all walks of life by being able to say "No".

Principal, Dr Charanjeet Kaur Sohi, accorded a floral welcome to the esteemed guest and appreciated her work and efforts towards the community. Dr Manipal Kaur, Nodal Officer Gender Champions Club offered the vote of thanks.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Established in 1973, with the primary mission of providing quality education to women, our college has been imparting value based education to young women synthesized with their intellectual, social, spiritual and physical development so that the quality of their life can be enhanced. In the last almost four decades of its existence, the college has made utmost endeavors to train individuals to become responsible citizens of the globalized world. The college has come a long way in its journey of evolution as an institution of distinction for its academic programme, dedicated faculty and excellent achievements of students in various fields. To meet the challenges of the changing economic scenario, the college has geared up efforts to introduce new courses of study and necessary infrastructural facilities and a team of well-qualified faculty who work consistently and tirelessly to impart wholesome education to the students with a special emphasis on inculcation of moral and ethical values.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Population ageing is the most significant emerging demographic phenomenon in the world and specifically India today. The rapid growth of the elderly population, the wide diversity in their profiles and the varied inter-related environmental influences require an in-depth and serious consideration. The experience of old age is affected by a number of factors like gender, ethnicity, social class, race, etc. and it is important to understand the interplay between these various factors. For a holistic understanding, the phenomenon of ageing must be approached from a multifaceted perspective. The seminar aims to understand the various dimensions of ageing in the contemporary Indian society and in particular focus at the major issues and concerns the elderly face ranging from work status, family and kinship relationships, inter-generational ties, gender ageing, health and disability, discrimination and prejudice, elder abuse, economic, psychological and emotional insecurity, images of the elderly, social security provisions for the elderly, institutional care systems, policies and planning, etc.
